

Financial Roundtable

“YOUR LOCAL PROJECT FINANCING BLUEPRINT FOR 2009”

AGC is conducting a Financial Roundtable, “Your Local Project Financing Blueprint for 2009” on the construction project financing market in Colorado to discuss the following concerns.

Is anyone still lending money for construction projects?

What kinds of projects are actually being financed?

Will the tight financing market have any effect on draw requests and timeliness of payments?

When will things start to improve?

Join us for an opportunity to hear perspectives and insight on the local construction project financing market from a panel of local construction lenders as well as a local commercial developer.

If you have a specific question or issue you would like addressed by the panel, please email it ahead of time to the moderator: Jeff Laird at jlaird@cobizbank.com
